Romantic Recreational Plot in the Campo of La Marina - Dream spot on the Rio Vinolopo

Among swaying palms, on the banks of the fish-rich and fast-flowing Rio Vinolopo river, lies an idyllic recreational plot of around 1,400 m² in the quiet interior of La Marina - just 7 kilometres from the pristine sandy beaches of El Pinet.

Featuring an attractive recreational chalet, this charming spot offers plenty of opportunities for peace-seekers and bon vivants. The plot is spacious enough to welcome up to five motorhomes, making it also extremely suitable as a camper spot. An additional building with toilet and shower offers practical facilities for guests or personal use.

Although it could use some loving attention, it is fully functional and excellent for recreational stays.

Thanks to a reliable solar system with batteries, you are completely self-sufficient in electricity. No energy bills and a sustainable and cost-saving solution. The surroundings are flat and equipped with well-maintained roads - also perfect for long bike rides under the Spanish sun. And for walking enthusiasts, the river offers an adventurous route full of peace, nature and the soothing sound of rippling water.

Are you looking for a piece of paradise in Spain, with plenty of opportunities for recreation, rentals or just to enjoy the good life? Then come and have a look. These plots (there are in fact two offering) more than just space - they offer a lifestyle
